

How to Measure for Sloping Doors

The following measurements are required:

Height on the left & right sides

Width of the door at the bottom and top if applicable

We do not need the angle of the doors as this will be calculated from these dimensions

